

Doria M. Camaraza

Senior Vice President and General Manager

World Service - Fort Lauderdale

Doria Camaraza is senior vice president and general manager for the American Express Service Center in Fort Lauderdale. She assumed her role in May 2005. As the AESC-Fort Lauderdale SVP/GM, Doria also serves as the executive owner of the Global Billing and Payment Services Network.

Previously, Doria served as president of Establishment Services in Latin America and the Caribbean. In this position she was responsible for all aspects of the American Express merchant business across the Caribbean, Central & South America and Mexico. Her role included signing new merchants to accept the American Express Card, managing merchant relationships on an ongoing basis, providing transaction processing and merchant servicing and fostering a growing Electronic Merchant Services business.

Doria joined American Express in 1987. Prior to her most recent leadership position, she worked in the U.S. Establishment Services business as vice president serving a group of our largest merchants. She began her career at American Express Publishing Company in a number of functions, the latest as vice president/publisher of Departure Magazine.

Prior to joining American Express, Doria was vice president/associate publisher of ASTA Travel News, the Official Publication of the American Society of Travel Agents. She began her career at the Reuben H. Donnelly Corporation in New York.

In 2010, Doria was selected by South Florida Business Leader magazine as one of the top female business leaders in South Florida and awarded the 2010 Women Extraordinaire Award. The 2010 honorees for Women Extraordinaire were chosen from a record 200 nominations and only 41 were bestowed with this honor.
