JOINT INITIATIVE TO GALVANIZE A COMMUNITY TOWARDS POLITICAL ACTION AND ADVOCACY

Judicial Political Forum: Free and open to the public

FORT LAUDERDALE (July 21, 2010) The Urban League of Broward County's Broward Votes™ hosted the first of two political forums on Tuesday, July 20, in which District 9 County Commission candidates engaged in a discussion panel to address a variety of issues important to the community. The second forum will be held for all Broward County Court Judicial Candidates on Tuesday, July 29, at the African American Research Library & Cultural Center, 2650 Sistrunk Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33311.

Tuesday, July 27, 2010 5:30 p.m.-7:30 p.m. – Judicial Candidate Forum

Debates: County Court Judges and 17th Circuit Court Judges

Broward Votes™ is comprised of seven organizations – the Urban League of Broward County and its Young Professionals Network, 100 Black Men of Greater Ft. Lauderdale, Jamaican Diaspora of Southern United States, National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) South Florida chapter, the T.J. Reddick Bar Association, and the Caribbean Bar Association.

"The Urban League is committed to providing the political awareness tools necessary for effective collective action," said Dr. Germaine Smith-Baugh, president and CEO of the Urban League of Broward County. "Broward Votes ensures that our residents are well informed and prepared to take steps toward making their voices heard and their needs the priority of those who choose to serve them."

Broward Votes™ is focusing on electoral seats that encompass the central Broward region so that elected officials don't overlook the needs and concerns of residents who are most at risk, in need and disenfranchised.

For more information concerning Broward Votes™ or the upcoming political forums, please contact Andrea Owes, Director of Special Projects for the Urban League of Broward County at aowes@ulbcfl.org or (954) 625-2548.
