Urban League of Broward County Welcomes 3 New Board Members

FORT LAUDERDALE (February 5, 2009) -- In its 35th year of serving the Broward Community, the Urban League of Broward County's (ULBC) Board of Directors held its Annual Meeting on Friday, January 29, 2009 at the Broward Center for Performing Arts. 3 individuals were named to the Board of Directors including representatives from Wachovia, Broward College and a Public Accounting firm. The event focused on the Urban League's Legacy of Empowerment, a theme that will be carried out throughout the year-long thirty-fifth (35th) Anniversary celebration. New members will officially begin their service to the non-profit in late February.

"As Board Chair, there is nothing better than to add people to the Board who care about the mission and vision of the Urban League and want to be a part of it," said current Board Chairman, Dennis Smith of Tripp Scott, LLP. "I dare to say that we have one of the best non-profit boards around."

New Members include: Dr. Edna Chun, Vice President for Human Resources and Equity at Broward College; Annette Daley, Sr. Relationship Manager/Vice President for Wachovia and Shaun Davis, Founder and Managing Partner of S. Davis & Associates, P.A.

“I am always excited when new people come in to the fold. They bring a fresh perspective and willing spirit to get things done,” says Urban League of Broward County president and CEO, Dr. Germaine Smith Baugh. “I only ask that people take a look at what the Urban League is trying to accomplish and ‘meet me at the mission’: a new phrase that my staff and I have been using to convey our desire to always keep our mission and the people we serve in the forefront of everything we do. We are lucky to have three new people who are willing to do just that.”

Edna Breinig Chun is Vice President for Human Resources and Equity at Broward College, a large urban community college with four campuses and 60,000 students in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. In this capacity, Dr. Chun oversees recruitment, professional development, staffing, diversity and affirmative action, employee and labor relations, compensation, records management, and benefits administration for the College. She has over two decades of human resource experience in public research universities in the California, Oregon, and Ohio state university systems. Dr. Chun holds the Doctor of Music and Master of Music degrees with High Distinction from the Indiana University School of Music, the Master of Arts degree from the Columbia University Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, and the Bachelor of Arts degree cum laude from Oberlin College.

Shaun M. Davis is Founder and Managing Partner of S. Davis & Associates, P.A. Backed by nearly two decades of experience in public accounting, auditing, tax and consulting services, Davis oversees all aspects of the firm's business. He has worked with clients in a range of areas including non-profit, real estate, public utilities, employee benefit plans and banking. What started out as a one-man accounting firm has grown to over 20 employees and has expanded to include the services of Information Technology Consulting and providing business consulting advice for all types of entities, both public and commercial.

Prior to launching his firm in 1991, Davis was an audit manager at Ernst & Young, one of the world's largest accounting firms. He started his accounting career with Deloitte and Touche and holds a degree in accounting from Florida State University. Davis has a rich history of involvement with educational, social and other community-based organizations. His success as a business owner and community leader has provided him with an invaluable opportunity to give back and serve others.

Annette Daley is Sr. Relationship Manager/Vice President for Wachovia. Daley has worked for Wachovia bank for approximately five years in various roles to become one of their Top Performers. Along with her peers, Daley leads and oversees the growth and retention of Mid-Size Companies within the Broward County Area. Born and educated in London, England and after graduating with B.A. in Art & Fashion Design, Daley worked briefly as a Fashion Buyer for a large retailer in London. In the early nineties, she and her business partner established a Fashion Design & Promotional Merchandise company.

Daley relocated to the United States in 1995 and embarked on a Banking Career where she obtained State Board Financial & Insurance Licenses and completed a financial accounting program and financial planning program. In the near future, Daley's goal is to embark on a Graduate Degree Program in Business & Finance.

Daley is married to Ricardo Walters and a proud mother of three wonderful boys.
