COURTNEE BISCARDI

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Mrs. Courtnee M. Biscardi is an accomplished nonprofit executive, community development leader, and advocate for economic empowerment with more than 25 years of experience in the human services and community development sectors. She currently serves as Executive Vice President of the Urban League of Broward County, where she provides executive leadership for organizational operations, strategic initiatives, governance support, and human capital management for approximately 70 employees.

In her role, Mrs. Biscardi oversees the Urban League's Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI), the Central County Community Development Corporation (CCCDC). Through CCCDC, she leads efforts to expand access to capital, training, and technical assistance for underserved small businesses through the Small Business Loan Fund, while also advancing affordable housing development and community revitalization initiatives throughout Broward County.

Holding a Master of Public Administration, Mrs. Biscardi has dedicated her entire professional career to the nonprofit human services field. Her expertise spans community and economic development, fair housing, housing affordability, asset-building strategies, and initiatives designed to help low-income individuals and families move from poverty to prosperity. During her 19-year tenure with the Urban League of Broward County, she has served in various leadership capacities and has played a pivotal role in expanding the organization's impact and visibility in the areas of community and economic development.

A respected leader throughout South Florida, Mrs. Biscardi has contributed her expertise through numerous community leadership positions. Her service has included serving as a technical assistance consultant for the National Urban League's Financial Empowerment Center pilot project, Chair of the Children's Services Council Strategic Plan Prosperity Committee, and Board President of the Broward Alliance for Neighborhood Development (BAND). She currently serves as a Broward County Housing Finance Authority Board Member, Vice Chair of the Community Reinvestment Alliance of Florida, and Advisory Board Member for TD Bank's Community Development Corporation.

Driven by a passion for people and a commitment to equitable economic opportunity, Mrs. Biscardi remains dedicated to advancing the Urban League's mission of helping individuals and families achieve economic self-reliance, parity, power, and civil rights while building stronger, more resilient communities.

Urban League of
Broward County